

OPERATION CLEAN AUDIT ROADSHOWS

The Acting Secretary for Defence, Mr T.E. Motumi, has expressed his gratitude and appreciation for the way in which the members of the DOD have responded to the Operation Clean Audit Roadshows that have taken place across the country.

The Operation Clean Audit Roadshows are currently under way and members are urged to attend. Attendance is key to making this project a big success.

Below is a preview of what you can expect. The responses are from members who have already participated in the roadshow.

SAAF Museum

- "This was a mind opening experience that was communicated very well"
- "Well researched information and a structured presentation"

School of Armour

- "This was a great opportunity to enhance our knowledge of these aspects"
- "Very informative"

- "A very good presentation and we have learned a lot, thank you"

Air Force Base Hoedspruit

- "Course was very informative"
- "This information should be communicated to all levels in the DOD as a whole to create awareness at all levels on Operation Clean Audit"

Engineer Formation

- "This training session was an eye-opener to me; the next roadshow should be dedicated to senior management"
- "Facilitators have a good knowledge of what they are talking about and their use of language makes it easy to understand. Workbook is user friendly"
- "Maximum participation was given by all learners. Therefore the skills and knowledge acquired will help us to make a difference in the work environment"

The Castle - Cape Town

"This roadshow has made a great input to my knowledge"

Rhemardo

- "This roadshow was a real eye-opener to all the staff. This was evidenced by a lot of interest displayed by the audience. Your presentation gave us great lessons on how to ensure proper service delivery in our work environment. Please keep on teaching us. This was not wasteful expenditure of time or money."

Air Defence Artillery Formation

- "Presentation was good and I benefited a lot. I will help my unit members with the knowledge that I got. Let it happen again every year."
